

Melissa Busse Insight Commercial Real Estate Brokerage, LLC

SPECIALITY: Please allow me to introduce myself, my name is Melissa Busse, better known as "Mimi." Visionary and progressive thinking is a strength I provide to further improve the economic and commercial growth of our community and to my clients. I have proven to maintain a keen sense of quickly assessing a commercial property and the future transformation it may possess.

MOTTO: Always be prepared! Being prepared and willing to accept change and challenges, in addition to taking calculated business risks, is fundamental to success.

APPROACH TO CUSTOMER SERVICE/BUSINESS: I truly believe my commitment to excellence and a strong work ethic is my approach to customer service. This passionate approach to my business in the commercial real estate industry has proven to set me above and apart from my competition. Please join me in building a better Lawton, one transaction at a time!

OUTSIDE THE OFFICE: I am born into a military family, married to Ryan Busse, and I am bilingual in Korean and English. It has been my experience in the past from renovating and building childcare facilities from the ground up, therefore giving me a true love for children and their development, and I also serve on several state committees with the Oklahoma Child Care Association. In my spare time, I enjoy decorating cakes for special occasions and my favorite vacation spot is Hawaii.
